

Breastfeeding Interview

A breastfeeding interview must be completed at appropriate times (certifications and mid certifications) as part of a comprehensive assessment. Breastfeeding interviews should be updated at all WIC contacts to provide anticipatory guidance and to collect and document relevant information. The interview should incorporate an interactive style (VENA) that promotes facilitated discussion.